Republican Candidate For Governor Speaks Over State-Wide Radio

TO AID EDUCATION

Emergency Hospital Care At State-Aided and Supported Institutions

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 31.—In a speech broadcast over a state-wide radio network last night, Attorney General James H. Duff, Republican candidate for governor, said:

In this final week of the campaign, as the nominee of the Republican party for the Governorship, I would like to tell you briefly some of the things I have in mind to try to do for the people of Pennsylvania.

Sometimes candidates have a tendency to promise everybody everything. I do not propose to attempt to secure your support by making promises that I know I cannot fulfill.

First there is the matter of public health. A survey recently conducted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania discloses a startling situation in the health of our children of school age.

The results of that investigation are amazing, and are a challenge to every citizen. In the metropolitan area of Philadelphia, where the first investigation on a large scale has been completed, it has been disclosed that 79.1 per cent of all children of school age are suffering from ailments that should receive medical attention. Doubtless every other community in the Commonwealth, when investigated, will approximate the same ratio.

The figures on Selective Service released by the government show that of all those examined for war service more than 43 per cent were unable to accept the rigor of military duty as the result of either mental or physical ailments.

The above facts are a startling indictment of the health of a people less than 300 years removed from the frontier.

Certainly we cannot tolerate our present physical deterioration to continue.

It is my plan that the health program initiated by the present Republican administration should be expanded and carried forward.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

The Hannegan Situation

Washington, Oct. 31.—The report that Mr. Robert Hannegan expects to retire as chairman of the Democratic Committee and as Postmaster General has again been revived. Not a great deal of credence is put in this, but if, as expected, the Republicans sweep the country, certainly it would seem a logical and fitting thing for Mr. Hannegan to do.

FOR, as the man who mapped out the Democratic strategy and managed the campaign, some degree of responsibility for the result will be his. Notwithstanding the persistent publicity campaign to make him appear a first-class politician, and which involves the constant use of adjectives such as "able," "capable" and "competent," when his name is printed or mentioned, there are a considerable number of Democrats who think that Mr. Hannegan is the least able chairman the party has had in a long time. Nor is this because of the rather feeble and forlorn condition to which the party has been reduced.

OF course, party chairmen always look better when the prospects are bright, but they would have to be dazzling, indeed, to make Mr. Hannegan appear good to those whom his policies and personality have disaffected. By these a number of men which seem to be well based. One is that his almost open and ing of all patients who are admitted to a hospital in Bucks County, Winfield Smith, a Philadelphia director speaking at a directors' meeting of the Bucks County Tuberculosis and Health Society on Monday evening, asked the group at Doylestown to consider the installation of a chest X-ray machine in a hospital there.

Mr. Smith, who took part in war work and assisted in X-raying in connection with his duties, also advocated an increase in chest X-rays among the middle-aged and colored American groups.

Announcement was made by the executive secretary, Mrs. Emma P. Stover, that the week of November 18 several large industries in the lower section of the county, and the Children Here on Good Behavior on Mischief Night

Mischief Night in this area was "not bad at all," say the Bristol police.

Approximately 25 or 30 calls were received between six and 10 o'clock.

There was some mischief of course, reported. In the vicinity of Mulberry and Cedar streets, black paint was smeared on some of the properties. Elsewhere in the borough, windows of stores, residences and cars were soaped, but not to the extent of former years.

Clothes lines were stolen and in one or two instances were stretched across highways. A rocking chair was tied up in a tree at Jefferson avenue and Wood street, near the residence of Chief of Police Linford J. Jones.

At the Bristol High School it was reported that no damage was done. At 10 o'clock this morning the Philadelphia Electric Co. reported that no street lights had been reported broken.

MONTHLY MEETING

The monthly meeting of American Legion Auxiliary will be held tomorrow evening at 8.30 in the Bracken Post home.

Three Receive Prizes At P. T. A. Masquerade Affair

HULMEVILLE, Oct. 31.—Twenty individuals participated in a Halloween party sponsored by the Hulmeville-Middletown Parent-Teacher Association in the school house on Tuesday evening. A program of games was planned for the masqueraders.

Costume prizes were awarded to Mrs. G. A. Japchen, Miss Margaret Perry and Ned Moyer, Sr.

The committee in charge of arrangements served refreshments, members of the committee being Mrs. Dain, Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Nicholas Grudza and Mrs. James Tracy.

NO BIDS ENTERED FOR EXTENSION OF SEWER

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 31.—No bids were entered for the East End sewer extension project when Doylestown borough council met on Monday evening.

"Every contractor is afraid of the costs today and you can't get firm prices," was the comment of William H. Boardman, consulting engineer, who was present.

Declaring that nobody knows what to do and that the only way to get any construction or engineering work done is on the "cost-plus" scale, Mr. Boardman said no contractor will submit a bid, but will do work only on a time and material basis.

"The whole thing is nationwide and this country is over-sold on post-war projects," the Philadelphia expert said. "It will take 54 weeks to get a 50-horsepower motor and there are no pipe deliveries nor will be in less than a year. Cost-plus is the only way you can get this type of work done," Mr. Boardman said.

Council took no action, but was advised by Engineer Boardman that it should advertise for bids again next spring because by that time things may be different.

IS COMMUNISM A JOKE?

A political reporter on a Philadelphia newspaper, in writing his roundup of the present campaign, dismisses the issue of Communism in the following humorous fashion:

"The Republicans are against Communism. . . .

"Governor Martin's presentation of the anti-Communist cause is not far removed from the evangelistic enthusiasm of the late Billy Sunday. . . .

"... at the end the audience stands 100 per cent against Communism, which is probably where it stood before."

Perhaps the first question raised by these comments is that of taste. Is the subject of Communism a joke? Is it, in the words of Gilbert and Sullivan, merely "a source of innocent merriment?"

Or is it one of those deadly serious matters, such as cancer, suicide, hanging, and the like, where "good form" draws the line against mockery and witticisms?

Very few patriotic Americans will find anything especially funny about the thought that the century and three-quarters of time, and the hundreds of thousands of human lives it has cost to make the United States what she is today, are to be wasted by throwing our free people into a shabby and foredoomed experiment in European collectivism.

The possible death of the American principle of freedom at the hands of the Communists would be tragedy rather than comedy, in the minds of most.

There is just a bit of smart-aleck quality in the newspaper passage quoted above, which reveals much more self-satisfaction with one's own opinions than boldness in putting those opinions in plain words.

The reporter seems to be saying, between the lines: "Of course all of us better-informed people know that this talk of Communism is the old malarkey. There's nothing to it but Republican hokum."

FILES APPEAL FROM JUSTICE'S DECISION

QUAKERTOWN, Oct. 31.—Norman Benson, of this borough, who purchased a home and who has begun eviction proceedings against a tenant in order to move into it, has filed an appeal from a decision by a Justice of the Peace, who rendered a verdict against him, directing him to move as quickly as possible from the place he occupies.

Adin Nicholas, of Nicholas Hardware, Quakertown, on October 4, 1946, in a verbal agreement rented a second floor to Benson. Benson paid a rental of $22.50.

Nicholas, according to the statement in the Prothonotary's Office, notified Benson that he must move July 2. A hearing was held before Justice of the Peace Howard E. Shive and a judgment of possession in favor of the plaintiff, Adin Nicholas, was rendered.

The defendant, Benson, testified that he has bought a home and has begun eviction proceedings himself and that he expects to vacate the second floor as soon as possible.

Bessie M. Reed, Plumsteadville, has begun an action in divorce against August W. Reed, 224 Railroad street, Allentown. They were married August 25, 1925, in Perkasie, and separated May 31, 1932.

Jail To Starboard!

(By "The Stroller")

Although he thought he had his "bearings," a sixth ward man found himself "at sea" when he was suddenly surrounded by the "cops" a few nights ago. He surely was in deep water.

The man in question, owner of two boats on the Delaware, was putting his "fleet" in storage for the winter, and decided he should set the compass before storing it. He informed his wife he would go to the Acme Market parking lot on Farragut avenue and set the compass by the North Star. "You might be sorry," she warned, as she unwillingly accompanied him to the appointed spot.

Fond hubby, armed with a flash-light, proceeded to do the task, flashing the light this way and that, the better to see the compass.

So intent was he on his task that he failed to notice the approach of part of the Bristol police department. It was a matter of sink or swim with the explanations, and he couldn't put much dependence on the compass for that—for the Acme Market has been entered on several occasions and goods stolen, and the police have been particularly vigilant regarding any unusual actions in that section.

The First Historical Pilgrimage ever held by the Boy Scouts of Bucks County will take place on Saturday, November 23rd, when the Scouts of the Council will gather at the Washington Crossing Park at 10 a. m. The Scouts will cook their meal in the ovens which are provided by the Park Commissioners and which have been set aside for their use on that day. A review of the troops by the Council officials and a short address on the significance of Washington Crossing and Bowman's Hill and the lowering of the flag over the graves of 29 Revolutionary soldiers at the circle of the states will be part of the program. The Council, will in this way, be one of the many Boy Scout Councils in America which will hold a historical pilgrimage to places of importance as part of the citizenship program of Scouting. Many troops are recruiting new Scouts who will be invested at a ceremony which will be held at the Thompson House as part of the procedure. New troops and cub packs have been organized or are under organization at the present time in Hilltown, Bristol, Fallsington, Tullytown, New Hope and Feasterville. A number of these units will be registered in time to participate in the historical pilgrimage so that their scouts may have the privilege of having part in this event.

IS COMMUNISM A JOKE?

THE BUCKS COUNTY COUNCIL SCOUTS, and scouts and cubs have been invited by the Princeton-Virginia game which will be held on Saturday, November 9th. Hundreds of Scouts, Cubs and Leaders and parents will accompany them and take advantage of this invitation to witness this football game. This is a revival of the custom which was in effect in the Bucks County Council for many years previous to the war. Each unit will furnish its own transportation and under its own leadership. A large block of seats have been set aside by the University for this event. Frederick B. Schneck, assistant Scout executive of the Council, will be in charge of the delegation.

PAGING JULES VERNE

Progressive education on a global scale seems to be in store for the student of tomorrow. Some idea of what can be done along these lines is afforded by Edgar Lee Layton, Washington theater man, who now commutes between the capital and New York City by air to take a university course in theater management.

A logical development of the idea would make it possible for the next generation of college students to attend a dozen schools throughout the world daily and get home every night in time for supper.

The typical My Day for the student of tomorrow may run something like this:

Breakfast on the rocket to New York; lesson in journalism at Columbia; lecture on Shakespeare at Oxford; rowing practice at Cambridge; French lesson at the Sorbonne; dueling practice at Heidelberg; Swedish calisthenics at Stockholm; lesson in Italian primitives at Parna; lunch in Cairo; oratory lesson at Athens; lesson in rug-weaving at Constantinople; rope trick lesson at Calcutta; judo class at Tokyo; engineering course at Stanford; football practice at Notre Dame; and home for supper.

And to this might be added a weekly jaunt to the moon for geological research.

ESKIMO FOOTBALL

American football isn't rough, it's a sissy game according to Roy Ahmaogak, a 48-year-old Alaskan Eskimo, who is studying English and religion at Bloomfield College and Seminary at Bloomfield, N. J.

In Alaska, Ahmaogak said, Eskimos play ayuktaktuat with a deerskin ball, stuffed with reindeer hair, two sides lining up on a field approximately 200 yards long. The sides may include as many as 30 men, women and children, ranging in age from seven to 70. The object is to get the ball to the other end of the field. There is no audience, except the incapacitated. There are no rules except a ban on homicide.

That may not be football as sports-lovers see it in this country but it is ayuktaktuat as the Eskimos like it. It should be borne in mind that, while anything may be considered good football weather in the United States, it is ordinarily more snappy in Alaska, so that even American spectators at a game of ayuktaktuat in Alaska might feel inclined to warm up by rushing down on the field and taking sides.

IS COMMUNISM A JOKE?

It is conspicuous, however, that he is remarkably careful to avoid actually saying anything of the sort. In this, his judgment is sound. It is far easier to try to laugh off the charge that the pro-Communists have taken over the Democratic Party in this State than it is to meet and answer the accusation.

Were the reporter who wrote the above whimsical lines about the Republican campaign able to prove what he hints, namely, that the Republican drive against Communism is merely a "phony" and a conspiracy to "smear" their Democratic opponents, then he would be in line for the Pulitzer award.

"Proof" that the Democratic candidates in this State have not, as charged, sold out to the PAC, or that the PAC, as charged, is not captive to a tight little band of pro-Communists at the top, would be the biggest "scoop" of the generation.

But all the proof is the other way. The braintrusters of the PAC have been identified, and their pro-Communist tie-ins have been traced. Several of them have had to beat down attacks from fellow members of the CIO unions to which they belong.

Some of the best-known figures in American life, many of them Democrats, have verified the general assertion that the Communists have an infiltrated organization ready for "the day." Attorney General Tom Clark, FBI Chief G. Edgar Hoover, and dozens of others, who by no stretch of the imagination could be brought into a "Republican smear conspiracy," have verified the danger and the channels by which it is approaching.

Moreover, despite the airy manner in which the topic is brushed aside in the above survey, the charge that a Democratic victory would be a victory for Communism has received the most clear and emphatic confirmation which could be asked.

It has been confirmed officially and publicly; first, by official Moscow news and radio identification of the PAC as its American "front"; second, by a similar announcement by the official newspaper of the American Communists, "The Daily Worker."

True enough, the Democrats and their sympathizers have been seriously embarrassed by these indorsements.

They have even gone so far as to assert that there is some mysterious "plot" afoot by which the Communists really are trying to elect Republicans.

But think a moment what these two official Communist indorsements of the Democratic slate would mean if, by any chance, the Democratic ticket were to be elected.

Is it not perfectly clear that such a Democratic victory would be hailed by Communists throughout the world as a token that the American people had voted for Communism in preference to their own form of government?

And would not the weak-kneed and befuddled national Administration promptly be pressured towards Communism on the grounds that the election was a "mandate" for such a course?

Communism, as has been excellently demonstrated within the present generation, means universal slavery. It means social anarchy, financial ruin, national bankruptcy, general destitution and sagging standards of living. So far as the nation is concerned, it would sweep America away from her proud position of world leadership and bring us down to the status of a poor, confused and third-rate country.

It is hard to find proper food for laughs in such a prospect.

Aesop furnished literature a convenient tag for those who warn of danger when it does not exist. His story of the boy who cried "Wolf" comes quickly to mind.

But it may be that the real moral of the Aesop fable has been lost in the amusement over the boy's embarrassment over being so excited about non-existent dangers.

Those who remember the fable will recall that the day came when there really was a wolf, and when the humorists of the neighborhood were so busy laughing at the warnings that their flocks were slaughtered.

There is another youth in history brought to mind by the political reporter's levity about Communism.

That is the lad who, on December 7, 1941, toyed with the radar at Pearl Harbor for a while and then announced that hundreds of planes were approaching. No doubt this sounded very funny at the time.

But let's not risk a Pearl Harbor in the field of Communism next Tuesday. Play safe—and vote Republican!

The Great Game of Politics

ther ugly fight against Secretary the Treasury John Snyder has waged the President and played to the hands of his enemies by steering the idea of discord in the cabinet and picturing Mr. Truman as a man who does not know his mind.

NOTHER is that Mr. Hannegan significantly has succeeded in getting himself praised by the severest and most unkind of the journalistic critics of Mr. Truman, who constantly deplore Mr. Truman's refusal to take the "sound advice" of the "liberal-minded" Mr. Hannegan. It may be unjust but it is certainly natural to suspect that Mr. Hannegan makes a practice of ore or less regularly confiding in the Truman detractors. Certainly, they treat him as generally as they are ungenerous to the President.

THIRD count is that at a time when the country is obviously turning to the right and is particularly inflamed by strikes, Mr. Hannegan has chosen to be more observant and consiliatory to the extreme left than any other man in his position. He practically eats out of the hands of the CIO-PAC leaders, and the member of the "cabinet" whom he most ardently admired was Mr. Wallace, who had to be asked to resign because of differences on basic policies with the President. Apparently, Mr. Hannegan lacks the wit to understand that the whole CIO-PAC outfit, along with the Communists, are violently and irrevocably anti-republican, and the Democrats could not lose their support if it were publicly repudiated.

EXACTLY that has been done in New York by ex-Governor Lehman, Democratic candidate for the Senate. Yet, Mr. Lehman's name still appears on the Communist party ticket and the support of all CIO-PAC-endorsed candidates is enthusiastically urged from Moscow and in the Daily Worker. Finally, there is the count that Mr. Hannegan's idea of pushing Mr. Truman far into the background and making this a "Roosevelt campaign, with radio flatters reproducing the dead President's voice and other corny resurrection methods designed to make it seem to a moron that, in effect, Mr. Roosevelt still lives, is just one of the stupidest and most repellent performances in the history of politics.

NO sensible person for a moment believes any votes are to be gained by such ghoulish antics. The classes which this appeal is supposed to affect are already supporting the Democrats for the very obvious reason that they hardly can support a party that thinks their hero was no hero at all but a very dangerous man whose passing is cause for neither grief nor regret. Conceding a Republican victory, the net effect of this parading of the late Mr. Roosevelt in this campaign will be to diminish his reputation, mortify his more intelligent friends, make him seem so much deadlier than he does now that in the future there will be slight temptation for any politician to evoke his name.

The deceased for many years was active in baseball, basketball and tennis in Bristol, and was a pharmacist for several years, engaged by the late Harry H. Headley.

Corn Husking in Bucks County "Is a Little Slow"

According to Bucks Co. farm agent, William F. Greenawalt, "Corn husking for this time of year is a little slow."

"This is due to the fact that we have had no killing frosts, and some of the corn is still too green," he added.

A large number of Bucks county farmers were late in planting their corn last spring because of the wet weather. Consequently the crop is late this year.

A very small percentage of corn is cut, shocked and husked. "At least 75% of the corn is husked either standing in the field or else by machinery," explained Mr. Greenawalt. In order to husk corn with a husking machine, the corn must be dead ripe.

Bucks county farmers, it is reported, are having a good crop of corn this year.

Mr. Greenawalt also added that the Fall seeding of grain is practically completed and silo filling is finished. "The grain that is up already looks very promising," concluded Mr. Greenawalt.

VEGETABLES WITH MEAT HELP IN THE FLAVOR EXTENSION

By Miss Edith Hopkins, Home Economics Representative

Making a little meat go a long way is not new. Favorite meat-stretching recipes have come out again and families are taking the meat shortage in their stride.

Meat is a good food. It is high in the food nutrients, protein, iron, and the vitamin B complex. These food elements can be obtained by using eggs, cheese, milk, or dried peas and beans. By combining these with vegetables and small amounts of meat, we are able to get the same food nutrients and the flavor of meat.

Milk will take the place of meat in furnishing the amount of protein needed. Just use an extra cup or two. Some of us need to use more milk anyway.

Here are two suggestions for making meat go further. For others just call or write the Agricultural Extension office and ask for leaflet 86, "Making Meat Go Further".

Meat Squares

1 1/4 pounds ground beef
2 cups cornflakes
1 egg
1 medium sized onion, minced
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
3 tablespoons minced green pepper
1/2 cup milk
Salt and pepper to taste.
Mix ingredients together, press out on broiler pan in square about two inches thick. Broil about 10 minutes on one side, cut in squares, turn and broil about 10 minutes on other side. Makes six generous servings.

Veal Cutlets

1 1/2 pounds round of veal
Flour
Salt and pepper
1 cup cold water, tomato juice or sour cream.
Cut veal in individual pieces. Roll in flour to which the salt and pepper have been added. Brown both sides in fat. Pour water, tomato juice, or sour cream over veal. Cover and simmer 45 minutes. Serve with gravy formed in the pan. Enough for six generous servings.

schools in lower Bucks county and the Quakertown schools will undergo X-ray chest examinations.

Mrs. Stover also reported that a statistical report for the year is being tabulated and will be presented at the annual meeting to be held some time in May.

Dr. A. J. Strathie, of Newtown, presided and the need for more doctors, men and women, who are interested in health work and the fight against tuberculosis, was stressed.

Preparations to hold a welcome home banquet for returned servicemen and women of the community were made at meetings of Midway Fire Company and its auxiliary, Monday evening.

The banquet will take the place of the business sessions of the organizations on Monday evening, Nov. 25, and it will be held in the Grange hall in Buckingham. A turkey dinner will be served, and there will be professional entertainment.

Duff Outlines Program To Aid Returned Veterans

By advocating such a program I am in no sense to be understood as endorsing socialized medicine. I am opposed to socialized medicine as I am opposed to every other form of regulation and regimentation as being hostile to the American way of doing things. But in public health there is a vast field for service by the Commonwealth for the benefit of all the people of the State.

There should be a wide and far-flung program looking to the examination of all the people in the State by providing diagnostic health clinics, not for the purpose of treatment by the State, but for the purpose of examination by the State and channelling persons so examined to their physicians. Such a program will be of vast benefit to the health of all the people of the State.

Another challenge is the treatment of mental patients. There is immediate need for expansion of our mental institutions. A substantial appropriation for construction has already been set up, but unfortunately the chaotic conditions existing in the building industry have prevented the rapid progress of this program.

I will urge generous allocation of funds for further construction of institutions for the treatment of mental illness and schools for mental defectives in order that overcrowding may be eliminated and adequate treatment facilities created in every State institution. In the accomplishment of these aims I will expect to have the advice and support of doctors qualified by special training for such advice.

In this connection it can be stated as a matter of pride and satisfaction to the people of Pennsylvania that the last census of the United States Department of Commerce shows that Pennsylvania led the entire nation in aid to the dependent children, aid to the blind and in general relief to the unfortunate. These services are a major function of government and are the kind of function government should be engaged in.

one that the citizens of Pennsylvania, as well as those of other parts of America must face with courage and act with intelligence in dealing with the plague of industrial unrest which now covers the United States. It cannot be denied that unrestrained labor warfare is bringing untold suffering and incalculable loss to the American people. It is destroying economic security, undermining government authority, and by restricting production is sowing the seeds that will result in unrestrained inflation. A free people should not permit organized labor to dictate to management and to regulate management, nor should management be allowed to dictate to labor and to regulate labor organizations.

Surely there is enough experience, desire and wisdom among the top leaders of industry, management, business and organized labor to provide and establish a labor-management plan or program which will eliminate or greatly reduce the terrible costs of the turmoil now upon us.

Labor has opposed any attempt to adopt compulsory arbitration of labor disputes, yet we find the Federal government, with the object of securing the votes of organized labor, forcibly taking over certain industries and granting the demands of labor after temporarily confiscating the property of the employer. Intelligent labor leaders know that the acceptance of concessions under those conditions is inconsistent upon the part of labor when it claims to oppose compulsory arbitration. These leaders know, too, that a government that can take over an industry so that it can increase wages to get labor votes can also, when expedient, take over a plant to help to reduce wages. It is capable of working both ways. Any plan to secure the right results must be based upon the conception of right dealing, not only between management and labor but with the public as well.

It will be my purpose if elected Governor to add the full support of my administration to the creation and adoption by management and labor of any program which will protect the rights of all our people, management, labor and the public and thereby establish and maintain peace in industry.

In the last two Republican administrations in Pennsylvania you have had good government, honest government, good house keeping government, government that sought to carry out the will of the people of the Commonwealth, and to add to their prosperity and well being. You may be sure that, so far as I am concerned, it will be my fixed purpose and policy to adhere to such a program and to carry on the administration of the government of the Commonwealth along sound, forward-looking and progressive lines for the benefit of all the people.

PA. LEADS BREEDING OF TROTTER HORSES

Has National Supremacy in Breeding Outstanding
Pacers for Co. Fairs

BIG HANOVER FARM

Among its many distinctions Pennsylvania has a national supremacacy in the breeding of the trotting and pacing horses whose performance is the outstanding feature of county fairs throughout the Nation.

Our state leads all others in its production of standard bred horses, that great American breed of harness horse whose development goes back to the year of 1788 when the English stallion, Messenger, first appeared on a track in Philadelphia.
Bellevue Pennsylvania — near Hanover in York county — has the largest standard bred breeding farm in America and probably in the world.
The state also leads the nation in the number of harness meetings and horse shows held annually, and produces thoroughbreds, hunters, colonnos, walking horses, saddle horses and hackney ponies.

The horse show to be held in the State Farm Show Arena October 23-27, and the standard bred sale held there November 5-8 are important events to many Americans who even in these years of automobiles and airplanes are showing an increasing interest in the breeding of trotting and pacing horses.

The standard bred horse has never been subject to the same kind of commercial exploitation as the thoroughbred and represents a typical American taste for the combination of speed and perfection of form in action.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys
If backache and leg pains make you miserable, don't just explain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.
The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of energy, getting up nights, swelling, coughs under the eyes, headaches and distress. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

CONTROLS! CONFUSION! COMMUNISM!

HAD ENOUGH? — Vote Republican!

Scarcities

No meat today, lady. No soap. No lard. No oleo. No bricks. No lumber. No plumbing. No cars. No spare parts. No nothing.

No brains in Washington—no output on the production lines.

HAD ENOUGH?—THEN VOTE REPUBLICAN!

Labor Tie-ups

Railroad strikes. Coal strikes. Motor strikes. Maritime strikes.
Power strikes. Big strikes. Little strikes. Strikes against the government. Strikes against the public.

No backbone in Washington—no peace on the labor front.

HAD ENOUGH?—THEN VOTE REPUBLICAN!

Communism

75,000 Commies on Federal payroll. Pro-Russian speeches from the cabinet. "Go easy on Russia." Poland, Finland, all Eastern Europe gobbled up by Stalin. "Give Russia the atomic bomb." Canadians jail Red spies; U. S. can't find any. CIO union members brand PAC "brain trust" as Communists. Penna. New Dealers sell out to PAC. "Communism not an issue," say Democratic spokesmen.

HAD ENOUGH?—THEN VOTE REPUBLICAN!

Vote to put backbone and new blood into the tired and discouraged national government! Vote for those who still have faith in the American Way of Life! Vote to uphold the Constitution against the Communists!

How about it, Mr. and Mrs. Voter? Do you want to go back to common sense, common honesty, Constitutional government and a nation run for ALL the people?

If you've HAD ENOUGH, Vote straight Republican next Tuesday, November 5th.

We will—then we don't. We won't—yet we do. Judge calls judge Russia everything she wants. We stabilize—but no stability. We reconvert --- but no production. Eighteen-month news summary:

"Truman cabinet divided."

HAD ENOUGH?—THEN VOTE REPUBLICAN!

Graft and Corruption

Bullets that wouldn't shoot—planes that wouldn't fly. Millions among Cover it up. Nail down the lid. Who stole what? Friend probes friend;

Inflation

"Hold the line!" Here a bulge. There a bulge. Twenty-five cent

VOTE TO CONTINUE PRODUCING CURRENT

Thorough Discussion Given Electric Problems At Perkase Plant

FEAR A 'BREAKDOWN'

PERKASIE, Oct. 31 — At a recent meeting of Perkase borough council, all councilmen voted against discontinuance of producing current here. Thorough discussion was given to the problems at the local electric light plant, with one suggestion being that current be purchased at wholesale rates from the Penna. Power and Light Co. The decision leaves council at the place where it began, because, without a special ballot at the election next month whereby the voters could authorize a bond issue, there is no other alternative but to continue as in the past with the present equipment supplemented by a hook-up with the P. P. and L. lines. Council authorized the installation of a new and larger water line from the power plant to the spray pond, and the cooling tower, which was ordered several months ago, will be installed in accordance with the original contract. The cost of the tower will approximate $32,500. Unless council enters into an agreement with the P. P. and L. for a greater supply of current, the capacity to serve will be limited to the current peak loads. This definitely precludes industrial expansion in the borough, nor will it be possible to provide current for new industries of any consequence. Unless provisions are made for more P. P. & L. current, the borough also constantly will face the possibility of a break-down at the plant that will leave the greater portion of the homes and factories without current. Superintendent Fox, who has been in charge of the plant since last December, repeatedly told council of the seriousness of the threat of a complete breakdown. It is said, and despite the fact that much work has been done on the turbines during the past six months considerable trouble has been experienced during recent weeks.

"... AND HER PATH WILL BE STREWN WITH DIAMONDS."

Not many women worry about having to wade through diamonds, but it is a strange woman indeed who doesn't want and expect at least one diamond during her lifetime. And most women, with their usual good sense, prefer a small flawless gem to a large, flashy imperfect stone. When you make that all important purchase be sure you consult a diamond specialist because only he, with his knowledge, experience, integrity, and ability to shop the diamond market is accomplished enough to help you. Come in soon and see Mr. Lynn.

The last lap is the hardest!

You've probably figured your present car won't have to last much longer.

We hope you're right. For our part, we're doing our best to get those grand new Packards to our customers.

• You know the situation

But, like every other motor car manufacturer, Packard is still struggling with parts and materials shortages.

This year, the industry as a whole has been able to build only 44% of its output for the same period in 1941.

Packard has done better than that, but we'd like to put in a word of caution:

It may be some time yet before you get behind the wheel of your new car.

• Don't take a chance!

Make sure your present car keeps rolling. Test your car with this easy quiz.

If you find any of these symptoms, bring your car in for a quick check-up.

Lots of cars are lasting longer and running better because our expert mechanics are trained to nip trouble before it takes hold!

WINTERIZE NOW! These days, it's doubly important to beat winter to the punch. Bring your car in early for a thorough check-up of your battery, electrical system, and cooling system—as well as pre-winter lubrication and engine tune-up. The last-minute rush will be terrific—and the first cold snap may damage hard-to-get parts!

P.S. Fenders, doors, running boards—in fact, all body parts are scarce. Don't let rust eat them away. Our protective treatment will add to your car's life, appearance and value.

X This home quiz can help you catch little troubles before they become big ones!

1. ENGINE: Is smoke coming out of the exhaust? Are you using more oil than you used to? If "Yes," better have your piston rings looked at.

OK ☐ Needs Attention ☐

2. CLUTCH: Can you push the pedal down 1" to 1½" before the clutch starts to release? If the distance is less than that, better have it adjusted.

OK ☐ Needs Attention ☐

3. STEERING: Measure amount of "free play" from "A" to "B" and from "A" to "C." Two inches or more indicates too much lost motion before wheels begin to turn.

OK ☐ Needs Attention ☐

4. BRAKES: Does your brake pedal travel more than one inch before any braking is felt—and at least one inch of pedal travel left after a full stop in 30 feet at 20 m.p.h.? If not, police will say they are unsafe.

OK ☐ Need Attention ☐

BRISTOL RAMBLERS
LOSE SECOND GAME

The Bristol Ramblers roller hockey team travelled to Olympic Park on Sunday and was handed their second defeat of the season. From the opening whistle the Greyhounds started vicious blocking, tripping and clever stick handling. Both teams scored one point in the first period. In the second period the Greyhounds held the upper hand as they scored three goals. Bowen scored the only point Bristol made in this period. In the third period play was fast and hard-fought with both teams scoring two points. Tommy Keene and Lonny Ritter scoring for Bristol. The entire Rambler squad played very good hockey.
